

MADD/LawEnforcement News Conference

Wednesday, December 20, 2006 – 11AM

*The Miller Brewing Company Pavillion Building
- The Miller Room - 910 East Michigan Street, Milwaukee*

- Good Morning. Thank you for joining us today. It is my pleasure to tell you that for the first time in more than 10 years, Mothers Against Drunk Driving has a chapter in Milwaukee.

- The state executive director Keri Kennard recently moved to the area and Keri... it is my pleasure to welcome you to Milwaukee County.

- We organized this news conference today to remind the public about the dangers and consequences of drinking and driving.

- According to national government statistics, there were 16,885 alcohol-related fatalities last year.

- In Milwaukee County, no incident highlights the drinking and driving problem more than the recent arrest of 44-year-old Dean Allen Sims.

- 2 a.m. Monday, deputies observed a white Mazda 626 driving erratically (deviating from lane to lane) on southbound I-43 near Lapham.

- The deputy stopped the car and detected a strong smell of alcohol on the driver.
- The deputy administered a field sobriety test which Mr. Sems failed. A breathalyzer indicated that his alcohol level was .15 – almost twice the legal limit.
- Here's what's most disturbing. A criminal background check shows that Mr. Sems has 11 prior OWI convictions dating back to 1990. Monday's arrest was his 12th OWI arrest.

- Look at the law enforcement representatives here. These men and women are doing their jobs. We're taking drunk drivers off the streets but too often our efforts are thwarted by a judicial system that tells drivers... “until you kill someone, we're not going to get serious with you.”
- From the paperwork we've been able to obtain, we know that Dean Sems was arrested for OWI 7 times before he served time. Starting August of 1992, he spent 11 months in the House of Correction and received a $1030.00 fine.
- Unfortunately, after getting out he continued to drink and drive.
- He continued to receive sentences of no more than one year.

- After he received his 10th OWI arrest, his crime became a felony and he served time in prison from April 15th 2001 to January 7th, 2003.
- Two months after his release from prison, Dean Sems was drinking and driving again. He served another 22 months in prison and while on probation, he was arrested by a Milwaukee County Sheriff's deputy Monday.
